

Back to School - August 24, 2015

August 24, 2015

Dear Fellow Texan,

It's finally that time of the year: parents packing lunches, teachers prepping their classrooms, and students are finally headed back to school. This year holds lots of promise for our Texan families, and there is lots of new legislation to help you and your family ensure your students' success this school year. My goal is to make you aware of the new legislation that will affect students and schools this school year, and hopefully clear up any questions that you may have about this Back to School Legislation.

Chairman of House Committee on Public Education, Jimmie Don Aycock recently released an overview of the policies and bills relating to public education. With over 60 bills passing successfully through the public education committee, this comprehensive guide can help you navigate your way through the changes you can expect for the 2015-2016 school year. You can also search bills on Texas Legislature Online by subject area (e.g. Education -- Bilingual).

Also, please take a moment to find me on social media. These websites are the best way to keep in touch with me on a day-to-day basis. You can find me on Facebook, and you can follow me on Twitter.

If you have questions about specific legislation that will affect you and your family this school year, or need anything at all, please do not hesitate to contact me or my staff. Our contact information can be found at the bottom of this email. We're always happy to help you.

Have a great school year.

Sincerely,

Dan Huberty
